Dear Children and Parents/Carers at Barton Hill Academy,

This Friday the 17th of November we are going to raise money for the BBC Children in Need.

There will be a non-uniform day this Friday; each child out of uniform requires a .50 pence donation.

You can wear your favourite sneakers, jumper, or maybe you have something warm and cosy you want to wear to school.

We have a whole school target of raising £250.

BBC Children in Need will not only support children throughout England but they will support projects and charities in Bristol and even Barton Hill!

There are over 20 charities and programs that our donations will help fund in Bristol.

Visit their website to find out more information

Come dressed in your best and lets all join together to help Children in Need.

Warm regards,

Claire Carty and Courtney Gray
